

Target Property Page

All of the GUI Automation Actions use the "Target" property page to describe the window or control that the action targets.