

Shell Execute Action

The Shell Execute action enables you to automate use the Windows Shell (Explorer) to act on a certain file.

For example, you could specify a .doc file and set the action to "print". This will ask the windows shell to print the document using the registered application for .doc files (eg. Word), see below:

? Unknown Attachment